Model Answer

Once upon a time, there was a sunflower named Sunny. Sunny stood in a field under a bright sun, and its petals were wide open. A friendly bee buzzed around, collecting nectar from the yellow sunflower.

Sunny felt a raindrop, and a light rain shower began. After the rain, a colorful rainbow appeared in the sky, making Sunny smile. A butterfly landed on one of Sunny's petals, and they enjoyed a moment in the sunshine.

Sunny closed its petals as the sun set, ready to rest after a happy day in the field. And so, Sunny's day became a tale of sunshine, rain, rainbows, and shared moments with friends.
